TELEGRAPHIC

A Murderer's Letter.

New York, 20.—The Sun publishes the following remarkable letter from a murderer:

TOMBS, MURDERERS' ROW,
January 19th.

To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir:—The 10th of February is drawing near, and if I do not get a respite, or a stay of proceedings I will certainly be hanged on that day. The Sun ought not to tell its readers that I had abandoned all hope of a new trial or commutation of the sentence, for I never desired, and therefore never hoped, for either one or the other. My cell is nearer to the door leading to the jail yard, where the gallows will be erected, than any other cell in the Tombs. The Sun is also wrong in stating that the prospect was that the length of march to death gave me some uneasiness. What gives me some uneasiness is the fear that owing to the stay of proceedings I will, like so many condemned murderers, not be strangled until a year or two hence, thus suffering the double punishment of long imprisonment and hanging. It seems that a great many persons would be much pleased to see me weaken and break down so completely that I would have to be carried out to the gallows; but I will try to bear myself well under the ordeal and die like a nineteenth century infidel. At any rate, I will die easier and quicker than she whom I love. I feel very, very sorry that I killed her, just as sorry in fact as the Sun says that I will be hanged.

WM. SINDRAM.
At the end of his letter was the pen sketch of a man hanging from the gallows, and connected with it the inscription: "Nearer, my God, to Thee."

London, 19.—A St. Petersburg dispatch mentions that the heaviest punishment yet inflicted upon Warsaw Jew baiters, has been a fortnight's imprisonment.

Vienna, 19.—Austria is contemplating the temporary occupation of Montenegro, and is negotiating with Serbia to have the latter guard the frontiers, and stop supplies for insurgents. Austria is also negotiating with Turkey to guard Bosnia.

London, 20.—A Berlin correspondent says anti-Jewish disorders have broken out at Rega. The Russian authorities are apparently unwilling to suppress the riots.

A St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphs that it is said the "holy league" recently formed to counteract nihilism, will be officially recognized as a branch of the police. This will be perhaps even more unpopular than the reconstruction of the famous third section.

St. Petersburg, 20.—Sankowsky, who attempted to kill General Tcheravine, at the interior department, has been sentenced to be hanged.

Paris, 20.—Gambetta has been urged by his friends to tender his resignation immediately. He declared in reply that he would retain the final issue with confidence.

Several journals here say the Sultan has resolved to dethrone the Bey of Tunis and the whole Haseid dynasty, replacing them by Ben Kalipha, leader of the Tunisian insurgents. The statements occasion no little commotion and events are watched with much interest.

Vienna, 20.—Seich, who attempted the life of the Russian minister, has confessed that it was his intention to assassinate the ambassador. Seich was prevented escaping by a footman who leaped from the carriage and seized, held him until the police arrived.

29

Washington Adv. ces.

Washington, 19.—President Arthur and Murat Husted attended ex Secretary Blaine's dinner to night.

Seven hundred and sixteen thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight immigrants arrived during the year.

Washington, 20.—The treasury department purchased 260,000 ounces of fine silver for distribution at Philadelphia, San Francisco and New Orleans mints.

The House committee on banking and currency, to-day, heard Representative Buckner in opposition to Dingley's resolution advocating the continuance of the national banking system, after which a vote on the resolution was demanded resulting in its adoption, 9 against 2. The negative votes were cast by Brumm and Buckner.

The Crapo bill to enable national banking associations to extend their corporate existence, was referred to a sub-committee.

At to-day's session of the national board of trade, a resolution was adopted asking Congress to appoint a commission which will have supervision of all interstate traffic in the interest of all parties concerned, both the general public and corporations themselves. This result was reached after a lengthy debate. The question of shipping was then taken up for consideration.

The House committee on foreign affairs authorized Belmont to report to the House with favorable recommendations, his resolution calling for the diplomatic correspondence in regard to Chili and Peru.

Criminal Calendar.

Cincinnati, 20.—A private dispatch says Wagener, the murderer of Dr.

Biggs, paymaster at the furnaces at Ironton, was taken from jail by a mob, last night, and lynched.

Augusta, 20.—Anderson Johns (colored) was hanged privately, to-day, in the jail yard for the murder of John S.

Harbison on December 9th. He made no confession.

Columbus, 20.—The grand jury, today, completed its investigation of the forgeries of the assistant secretary of the state board of public works, F. W. New-berg, amounting to $20,000. The jury returned fifty-two indictments, and if convicted on each, as is probable, the lowest aggregate penalty will be fifty-two years in the penitentiary, or at the greatest 570 years.

These Confederate Bonds.

New York, 19.—Judah P. Benjamin explodes the story that a large sum of money belonging to the southern confederacy is somewhere concealed in Europe waiting to be claimed by holders of confederate bonds. He writes from London that he does not believe one penny is to be found anywhere in Europe of the assets of the defunct confederacy.

Mr. Benjamin's statement will strengthen the theory that the recent movement for the purchase of worthless confederate securities was a reckless swindling speculation.

Star Route Cases.

Washington, 20.—The cause of the delay in the straw bond star route cases, thus far, has arisen from the defense insisting upon the identification of every bond and contract introduced as evidence.
The prosecution, by a clever manoeuvre, had all these papers examined and identified privately by Notary Webster, who originally witnessed them, and this morning created rather a sensation in court by calling Webster and Blackburn to the stand, and proving the papers in bulk. Strong objection was made by the defense at this action, but they were overruled by the court. The examination in consequence will be much shortened. The defense denounced this private examination as a star chamber proceeding, and manifested much feeling on the subject.

Business Failures.

New York, 20.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency and their branches report the business failures for the seven days at 177. The eastern state had thirteen, western 61, southern fifty-seven, middle thirty-three, Pacific Coast four and New York City eight. The failures in the country, particularly south and west, are among the more important class of traders than usual, and indicate that the unreasonable weather, which prevailed most of the winter is beginning to tell both on sales and on collections.

Anna's Acting.

New York, 19.—Several New York critics were at Rochester last night to witness Anna Dickinson's impersonation
